

Expert Panel Review: Students with Complex Needs and Challenging Behaviour

Invitation to parent forum

As you may be aware, earlier this year, the Minister for Education established an Expert Panel to review how ACT schools respond to students with complex needs and challenging behaviour.

On Wednesday 18 November, the Minister for Education released the report of the Expert Panel Review and the Government response to that report.

The Education and Training Directorate invites parents to attend a forum to learn more about the contents of the report, how the Government has responded to the 50 recommendations made by the Expert Panel and what this means for students in ACT schools.

Please see below for dates and times of parent forums. There is no need to book, just come along.
